
Subject: what's in the rotation?

Posted by j.hall on Thu, 30 Sep 2004 20:08:50 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

i've been so busy with life (landscaping, being a dad, fixing broken gear.....) i haven't had much time to check out any new bands.

i feel totally in the dark.

what are you listening to right now any links to website with good mp3's would be cool to also, i'd like to know some of the "up and coming" indie bands.

you know, the ones that always suck, but gets lots of hype regardless.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by mogwailoveyou on Fri, 01 Oct 2004 22:19:49 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

lessee.... as far as up and coming, as stated in the mm/ff forum, the arcade fire is definately quite good and on a roll. Hopefully you've already heard of his music but i have a feeling iron & wine is going to be on the up due to his postal service cover in the indiemovieofthesummer garden state. oh sufjan stevens!!! yes he's another one definately on track to indiepop stardom, not to mention making beautiful music. er... haha if you want hype then all i have to say is ANTICS... just kidding. eh i'm pretty sure you've heard of all these bands but if you really want to talk about bands and good music just email me sometime, i love showing people new bands and learning about them.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by tiggie on Sat, 02 Oct 2004 07:58:31 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I have no idea what's being hyped at the moment.

But I'm listening to the new Six By Seven album and it's great. Some of it was mixed by Dave Fridmann, though a lot of the best tracks weren't.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by craig boychuk on Sat, 02 Oct 2004 16:25:38 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

In my player at the moment:

Rumah Sakit

PsyOpus

Tin Hat Trio

I just found out about these bands recently. I don't know how new they are, or if there's any hype, but damn they're good.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by A.J. on Mon, 04 Oct 2004 17:36:45 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Lucero - [just saw them this weekend. great show]

Drive by Truckers

Starch Martins

not new,new stuff. DBT is pretty new.

Anyone here into alt-country-ish stuff?

A.J.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by breathe310 on Mon, 04 Oct 2004 17:43:01 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Recently picked up the Apostle of Hustle album 'Folkloric Feel'. This is a group with a member of Broken Social Scene, Andrew Whiteman. If you're into BSS, check this out at www.arts-crafts.ca. It's really cool, and delves a bit into the jazzier, spaced out side of BSS, but still has some good rock grooves. Also, picked up a 4 song EP/demo from Satisfaction. It's a pop type band from the LA/Orange County area with the lead singer from a band called Smile. Super infectious. New Interpol is really good as well.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by NelsonL on Mon, 04 Oct 2004 18:21:51 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

mogwailoveyou wrote on Fri, 01 October 2004 15:19oh sufjan stevens!!! yes he's another one definately on track to indiepop stardom, not to mention making beautiful music.

Saw Mr. Stevens in Atlanta--

He seems very sensitive and talks at length about his home state of Michigan and his family life growing up. It's like <http://www.thislife.org> meets indie folk.

FWIW, I thought the "Ira Glass" bits were more interesting than the actual music.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by mogwailoveyou on Tue, 05 Oct 2004 04:24:15 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

haha i love my alt-country, although i shun that title in favor of neo-american. if anybody can figure out what it means then they know the difference between songs: ohia and the dixie chicks.

i just got the new elliot smith and i'm listening to it right now... kinda strange just thinking that he's dead... so far seems produced more like his dreamworks stuff over his kill rock stars years.

Subject: biirdie

Posted by travista00 on Tue, 05 Oct 2004 05:36:03 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

check out biirdie at <http://www.flyawaybirdie> even though i produced it, i still think it's good. (whatever that means!) out on pop-up records in the next month or two... it's brill-building type songwriting with experimental keyboard textures and truly heartfelt performances. i also love the new thrills song "not for all the love in the world." beautiful, alt-country-ish stuff.

travis.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by weihfool on Wed, 06 Oct 2004 18:25:14 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I don't have anything new, but a poster on here, Mr. Keith Childrey is in a band called Imaginary Baseball League, who my band had the pleasure of playing a show with in an empty warehouse with about 10 kids in attendance. It was a great time watching them play. They were on tour from the Nashville area and got stuck playing with us on Long Island. What a great performance they put on though.

Check 'em out here: <http://www.imaginarybaseball.com/>

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?
Posted by xonlocust on Wed, 06 Oct 2004 22:31:21 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

call me lightning - the trouble we're in

<http://revhq.com/store.revhq?Page=search&Id=REV121>

basics done w/bill skibbe @ key club. stupid good band. if you like hot snakes you'd like them too.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?
Posted by j.hall on Thu, 07 Oct 2004 13:34:14 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

xonlocust wrote on Wed, 06 October 2004 17:31 call me lightning - the trouble we're in

<http://revhq.com/store.revhq?Page=search&Id=REV121>

basics done w/bill skibbe @ key club. stupid good band. if you like hot snakes you'd like them too.

good one nick.....just put them on the never ending list of records i need to buy.

if i could convince my son to stop eating for a few weeks i could buy some of these.....hahahaha

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?
Posted by Chad Sims on Fri, 08 Oct 2004 21:32:55 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I haven't heard anything new that has blown me away lately. I can tell you what to avoid and that is The Bravery. I saw them last night and although they were all great musicians it was the most unoriginal music I have heard amongst the current crop of indie dance bands. At one point I truly thought they were doing a New Order cover until the vocals came in. Having said that, unless this trend dies out soon these guys are gonna be huge with the kids they had the Duran Duran eye makeup and everything. Only pick this record up if you are too lazy to dig out the same records that other bands put out in the 80's.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by Lars Ekman on Thu, 18 Nov 2004 12:06:29 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

You may have heard all of these, but these are some things I'm listening to now:

The Hidden Cameras - Mississauga Goddam (Symphonic indie pop.)

Schneider TM - 6 Peace (Melodic electronica.)

Dolly Mixture - Demonstration Tapes (Not new but the best "girl group" EVER. Don't bother trying to find the CD, it goes for $120 on eBay)

Songs: Ohia - North Star Blues Sessions (Jason performs fantastic new songs on Dutch radio, download it.)

From Ashes Rise - Nightmares (Incredibly well-produced and well-written blend of everything hardcore, crust, emo and punk.)

Shearwater - Everyone Makes Mistakes (alt-country meets Belle & Sebastian?)

Code 13 - A Part of America Died Today (released in 1999, one of the best hardcore 7" ever)

LCD Soundsystem - Give It Up 7" (so bad)

Morgan Geist & The Rapture - House of Jealous Lovers Remix (house, punk, funk)

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by j.hall on Thu, 18 Nov 2004 15:40:38 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

right now

my changer has:

hot snakes: audit in progress

blood brothers: crimes

les savy fav: inches

karate: pockets

channels: open

plus/minus: you are here

mum: summer make good tomahawk: mit gas

modest mouse: good news for people who like bad news

the bad plus: give

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by weihfool on Fri, 19 Nov 2004 01:05:54 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

My passenger seat is currently inhabited by the following jewel cases:

1. Jeremy Enigk - Return Of The Frog Queen
2. Helmet - Size Matters
3. Breaking Pangaea - Take Apart The Words
4. Dave Brubeck - Time Out

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by Level on Fri, 19 Nov 2004 02:41:44 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

j hall has reached post 666

doo dee doo doo (Via twilight zone theme)

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?
Posted by rvdsm on Fri, 19 Nov 2004 14:58:35 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I've only been listening to three albums.

Mastodon - Remission
Scissorfight - Balls Deep
Tin Machine - Tin Machine

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?
Posted by Conner on Fri, 19 Nov 2004 16:30:17 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Just heard the new U2 album a couple times last night at a listening party put on by Interscope, Couldn't hear it really well (for all the schmoozing) as far as sonics are concerned, but the songs are great. Interesting production throughout. Something like 6 or 7 different producers. Again bringing back that signature early album sound. I can't wait for Tuesday.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?
Posted by mogwailoveyou on Fri, 19 Nov 2004 19:04:27 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

i miss 80's U2... not that i was musically cognitive around their first era... but the other day i was in subway and the radio station went from "where the streets have no name" to "vertigo" and i wanted to cry. seriously there should be a law keeping singers from yelling "YA YA YA COME ON COME ON!" but i have faith that hopefully some of the other songs on the album are better...

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?
Posted by twonky on Fri, 19 Nov 2004 19:56:28 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I have been digging Elbow's record Cast of Thousands.

So good, it makes me weep.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?
Posted by volthause on Fri, 19 Nov 2004 20:02:19 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

My girlfriend just let me listen to a new CD she got the other day. A band called The Killers, or something like that. It was good. I've also been crushing Butch Walker - Letters recently.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?
Posted by j.hall on Fri, 19 Nov 2004 20:07:41 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

mogwailoveyou wrote on Fri, 19 November 2004 13:04seriously there should be a law keeping singers from yelling "YA YA YA COME ON COME ON!"

if that were a law, rock n roll would be the worst genre on the planet.

i can't tell you how many times i've yelled along with rocket from the crypt, the blood brothers, and countless others to those exact lyrics!!!!

i can't wait to write it into my own song.

long live the yeahs, and COME ON's

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?
Posted by twonky on Fri, 19 Nov 2004 21:25:11 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I mean, I know U2 is the cheesiest but I am 100% behind that new song, its like War condensed into a supersong!

Anyways, the Killers make me a bit nervous, well based on their video, the guys appear to be playing guitars and rel drums but I hear nothing but synths and programmed beats in that song, hmmm. they have one hit written all over them, in-authentic doo doo.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by twonky on Fri, 19 Nov 2004 21:26:29 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Also, new Nick Cave is BOLD!

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by mogwailoveyou on Fri, 19 Nov 2004 23:03:55 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

fine i'll let you have your "ya ya ya"s but the "HOLA!" has got to go! vertigo... elevation... someone needs to get bono to flatlands and fast.

as far as the killers. there's a TA in my midi class that wears a killers shirt every friday. he's a dumbass. i have nothing else to say about that band.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by how_gauche on Fri, 26 Nov 2004 16:35:40 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

* arcade fire (seconded, the next u2, only not quite as pompous)

* the blow, poor aim: love songs, HOLY SHIT this is good.

* les mouches/final fantasy/owen pallett in general, toronto's favourite genius nothing else that's come out in the past six months has bitten me that hard. that could just be an artifact of the monomaniacal focus of working on a record though.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by craig boychuk on Sat, 27 Nov 2004 19:48:29 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I just checked out les mouche, fuck that shit sounds cool. Gonna have to get that.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by volthause on Thu, 02 Dec 2004 21:09:32 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

The Hellcopters!

Swedish power rock, pretty good stuff.

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by mogwailoveyou on Fri, 03 Dec 2004 07:32:59 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

mmm arcade fire... sooo addictive. they have some of my favorite songs that have gotten stuck in my head since i couldn't stop singing "dance dance dance dance dance to the radio..." something about that postpunk drum reverb just melts your mind into a puddle of absorbent mush (joy division not arcade fire.)

haha i've also had that Lenin I Shumov (i spelled that correct.. right?) stuck in my head despite the fact i have no idea what he's saying...

side note: your cd will be sent soon, i finally got some cdrs!

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?

Posted by bloodstone on Fri, 03 Dec 2004 18:45:53 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Newest Social Distortion

Syd Barrett-Barrett
Jimi Hendrix-Axis Bold as Love
White Stripes-Elephant
Pink Floyd-Piper at the Gates of Dawn
Flatlanders-More a Legend than a Band

Subject: Re: what's in the rotation?
Posted by Bo on Fri, 03 Dec 2004 19:21:35 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

my rotation is steady these days

Iron & Wine
The Decemberists
Elliot Smith
Sparta
American Analog Set
Bjork and/or Matmos
Sufjan Stevens
Stella Maris (dfw local)
Tiebreaker (dfw local)
Pinback
